

NORTHWEST CORRIDOR

Public Information Open House

DATE: Tuesday, November 15, 2005

TIME: 5:00PM to 8:00PM

PLACE: Cobb County Civic Center

548 S. Marietta Parkway, Marietta, GA

The Federal Highway Administration (FHWA), Georgia Department of Transportation (GDOT), Federal Transit Administration (FTA), and the Georgia Regional Transportation Authority (GRTA) will hold a public information open house to present the current status of the alternatives under consideration for the Northwest Corridor (I-75/I-575) project in Fulton, Cobb, and Cherokee Counties.

The Northwest Corridor Project proposes:

- construction of High Occupancy Vehicle (HOV) lanes and Truck Only Lanes (TOL) along I-75 between Akers Mill Rd. and Hickory Grove Rd.
- construction of HOV lanes on I-575 from the I-75/I-575 Interchange to Sixes Road in Cherokee County.
- implementation of a Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) system along the I-75 corridor from Cobb County to Downtown Atlanta.
- location of BRT stations along I-75 between the Cumberland and Town Center areas.

There will be no formal presentation, but project representatives will address individual comments and concerns

Study area maps and displays will be available.

A continuous video presentation on the project will be shown.

A court reporter will record individual comments during the open house.

Written statements will be accepted until November 29, 2005 and may be mailed to:

Mr. Harvey D. Keeper
