

NORTHWEST I-75/I-575 HOV/BRT Public Information Open House

The Federal Highway Administration (FHWA), and the Georgia Department of Transportation (GDOT), in cooperation with the Federal Transit Administration (FTA), and the Georgia Regional Transportation Authority (GRTA) will hold a public information open house concerning the Northwest Corridor (I-75/I-575) High Occupancy Vehicle (HOV)/Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) Project in Fulton, Cobb, and Cherokee Counties.

The Northwest Corridor HOV/BRT Project proposes construction of HOV lanes along I-75 and implementation of a BRT system along the I-75 corridor from Cobb County to Downtown Atlanta. Proposed HOV lanes and BRT stations are located along I-75 between Akers Mill Rd. and Wade Green Rd. HOV lanes are also proposed on I-575 from the I-75/I-575 Interchange to Sixes Road in Cherokee County.

The open house is being held as a follow-up to the August 4, 2004 meeting, as a continuation of the Alternatives Analysis/Draft Environmental Impact Statement (AA/DEIS) phase of project development.

Monday, November 15, 2004
Renaissance Waverly Hotel
